Texting Ready Kit

Privacy, Terms and opt-in language that pass business texting review

Day 2 of Hire Your AI Agent in 3 Days. Fill in your details with Hermes, then paste the pages into your site or let Hermes draft them in Product Champ.

What you will have

A Privacy Policy, Terms of Service and text opt-in wording that match each other, plus a checklist to run before you submit.

Plan for about 45 minutes

Most of the time is answering Hermes one question at a time.

This template is a starting point, not legal advice. Have an attorney review it for your state and industry.

Read this first

Not legal advice

This template is a starting point, not legal advice. Have an attorney review it for your state and industry. If you work in healthcare or handle health information (HIPAA), check with your attorney before you text anything about care.

WHY YOU NEED THIS

Carriers check every business that wants to send texts. This is called A2P 10DLC registration. A reviewer opens your website, your Privacy Policy, your Terms and your sign-up form. They must all tell the same story about who you are and what you will text.

WHAT IS IN THIS KIT

1. A Privacy Policy template with a text messaging section.
2. A Terms of Service template with a text messaging section.
3. Opt-in checkbox wording and sample texts.
4. Three Hermes prompts: interview and fill in, draft the pages in Product Champ, and audit your site.
5. A 10 item pre-submit checklist.

THE EASY PATH

1. Run Prompt A. Hermes asks you one question at a time and fills both templates.
2. Read the result. Send it to your attorney if you can.
3. Paste it into a page yourself, or run Prompt B so Hermes drafts the pages. You approve before anything goes live.
4. Run Prompt C to audit your site and forms.
5. Walk through the checklist, then submit.

Submit only once your paid plan is active

Do not start your texting registration until your paid plan is active. Fees and rules change, so read the current numbers on your screen before you pay.

What reviewers look for

Your submission is judged as one whole story. A working website does not fix a form that cannot be checked.

YOUR PRIVACY POLICY MUST

- Say mobile information and text consent are not shared with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes.
- Never mention buying, selling or sharing lists of people.
- Say what you collect and how you use it for texting.
- Mention message frequency and "message and data rates may apply."
- Be public, with no login, and be the only privacy policy on the site.

YOUR TERMS MUST

- Name your business and describe the texts.
- Explain STOP to opt out and HELP to get help.
- State message frequency and "message and data rates may apply."
- Say carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.
- Say consent is not a condition of purchase.
- Link to your Privacy Policy.

YOUR SIGN-UP FORM MUST

- Have a text consent checkbox that is unchecked and optional.
- Keep text consent separate from the Terms.
- Name your business and the kind of texts.
- Show frequency, rates, STOP and HELP, plus Privacy and Terms links.
- Use separate boxes for marketing and non-marketing texts if you send both.

COMMON REASONS FOR REJECTION

- The policy says phone numbers may be shared with partners.
- No privacy or terms link at the sign-up form.
- A pre-ticked box, or consent bundled into the Terms.
- The business name or contact details differ between pages.
- The website is missing, under construction or behind a login.
- A free email address (like Gmail) as the business contact.
- Sample texts do not match the stated use.

Your starting settings

DEFAULT TEXTING TYPE

For most Product Champ businesses, choose Low Volume Mixed. It covers reminders and updates plus some offers. In Product Champ's guided setup, picking Mixed sets this automatically and creates two separate consent boxes. Choose purely customer care or purely marketing only if that is all you will send.

WHAT TO HAVE IN HAND

- Legal business name exactly as on your tax papers, and your DBA if you use one
- Street address, business phone, and a business email on your own domain
- Your live website address
- A list of the texts you plan to send, and about how often
- The ways people join: web form, booking page, keyword, paper form or in person

WHERE THIS FITS IN PRODUCT CHAMP

Registration happens in your account under Settings, Phone System, Trust Center. You enter your business details, pick a use case, add sample messages, add your opt-in details, and link your Privacy Policy and Terms.

KEEP ONE STORY

Your use case, campaign description, sample messages, form wording, Privacy Policy and Terms must agree. If one says appointment reminders and another says discounts, expect a rejection.

IF YOU DO GET REJECTED

Open the required fixes and read all of them. Fix the whole submission, then resubmit. Rejected campaigns that qualify can be fixed and resubmitted, and a reviewed campaign can take days.

Next

Open the Privacy Policy template on the next pages. Every highlighted [BRACKETED] item is a blank for you or Hermes to fill in.

Privacy Policy template

This template is a starting point, not legal advice. Have an attorney review it for your state and industry.

Privacy Policy

- Your text message consent record: the date and time, the wording you agreed to, and the form or page where you agreed

We also collect some information automatically when you visit our website, such as your browser type, device type, pages you view, and the web address that sent you to us. We may use cookies to do this.

3. How we use your information

We use your information to:

- Answer your questions and give you the services you ask for
- Book, confirm and remind you about appointments or services
- Send the text messages and emails you agreed to receive
- Keep records of your consent
- Take payments and send receipts [DELETE IF YOU DO NOT TAKE PAYMENTS]
- Improve our website and our services

- Follow the law

4. Text messaging (SMS) privacy

This part applies when you agree to get text messages from us.

What we send. [SMS USE] (Describe your texts in plain words. Example: appointment reminders, order or service updates, replies to your questions, and, if you choose, special offers and news. Delete these directions when done.)

What we collect. We collect your mobile phone number and your consent record so we can send the texts you asked for and prove that you agreed.

We do not share your mobile information. We do not share, sell, or provide your mobile phone number or text messaging consent data to third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes.

No mobile information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing/promotional purposes. Information sharing to subcontractors in support services, such as customer service, is permitted. All other use case categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

Who helps us send texts. We use a texting platform and phone carriers to deliver our messages. They act for us and may use your number only to deliver our messages.

Message frequency. [MESSAGE FREQUENCY] (Example: Message frequency varies. You may get up to 8 messages a month. Use the same wording you use on your forms and in your Terms. Delete these directions when done.)

Costs. Message and data rates may apply. Your mobile carrier sets those rates.

Opt out. Reply STOP to any text at any time. We will send one last message to confirm, and then you will not get more texts from us. You can join again later by signing up again.

Get help. Reply HELP to any text, or contact us at [BUSINESS PHONE] or [BUSINESS EMAIL].

Agreeing to texts is your choice. Consent is not a condition of any purchase. You do not have to agree to texts to buy from us or use our services.

Carriers. Wireless carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

See our Terms of Service at [TERMS URL] for the full text messaging terms.

5. How we share information

We do not sell your personal information. We share it only in these cases:

- Service providers. Companies that help us run our business, such as website hosting, scheduling, email, payments and texting. They may use your information only to do work for us.
- Legal reasons. When the law requires it, or to protect our rights, our customers, or the public.
- Business changes. If our business is sold or merged, your information may move to the new owner, who must protect it under this policy.

Everything in this section excludes text messaging consent data and mobile phone numbers collected for texting. Those are never shared for marketing, as described in Section 4.

6. Cookies

Our website may use cookies and similar tools to remember your choices and see how people use our site. You can turn cookies off in your browser settings. Some parts of the site may not work well without them.

7. How we protect your information

We use reasonable steps to protect your information, such as limited access and secure services. No website or storage system is 100 percent safe, so we cannot promise perfect security.

8. How long we keep information

We keep your information as long as we need it for the reasons in this policy, or as the law requires. We keep text consent records for as long as we send you texts, and for [RETENTION PERIOD] (ask your attorney; delete these directions when done) afterward so we can show that you agreed.

9. Your choices

- Texts: reply STOP at any time.
- Emails: use the unsubscribe link in any marketing email.
- Your information: you may ask to see, fix or delete the information we hold about you. Contact us using the details in Section 12. We will answer in a reasonable time.

OPTIONAL: [STATE PRIVACY RIGHTS] (If your attorney says your state requires extra privacy rights wording, add it here. Otherwise delete this line.)

10. Children and age

Our website and services are not meant for children under 13. We do not knowingly collect information from them. [AGE LINE] (Example: Our text messages are for people 18 or older. For alcohol, vape or other age-limited businesses, write 21 or older and add an age check to your site. Delete if not relevant.) If you think a child gave us information, contact us and we will delete it.

Opt-in checkbox language

This template is a starting point, not legal advice. Have an attorney review it for your state and industry.

THE RULES FOR THE CHECKBOX

1. Unchecked by default. The person must tick the box themselves.
2. Optional. The form must submit without the box ticked, even if the phone number is required.
3. Separate. Do not tie text consent to "I agree to the Terms" or to email or phone call consent. It must name text messages.
4. Marketing and non-marketing are separate boxes when you send both (our default campaign type, Low Volume Mixed, does). A person can pick one, both or neither.
5. Say who and what. Name your business and the kinds of texts, using the same words as your campaign description.
6. Include the basics next to the box: message frequency, "message and data rates may apply," how to STOP, how to get HELP, and links to your Privacy Policy and Terms.
7. Put both links in the footer of every page and form. They must be easy to see and not hidden by pop-ups.

Checkbox 1: Marketing texts (optional box)

Use this only if you send offers, promotions or news. Example for [MARKETING MESSAGE TYPES]: special offers, discounts and news.

> [ ] I agree to receive marketing text messages, such as [MARKETING MESSAGE TYPES], from [BUSINESS NAME] at the phone number I gave. Message frequency may vary. Message and data rates may apply. Reply HELP for help or STOP to opt out. Consent is not a condition of any purchase. See our Privacy Policy [PRIVACY POLICY URL] and Terms [TERMS URL].

Checkbox 2: Non-marketing texts (optional box)

Use this for appointment reminders, service updates and answers to questions. Example for [NON-MARKETING MESSAGE TYPES]: appointment reminders, service updates and replies to my questions.

> [ ] I agree to receive non-marketing text messages, such as [NON-MARKETING MESSAGE TYPES], from [BUSINESS NAME] at the phone number I gave. Message frequency may vary. Message and data rates may apply. Reply HELP for help or STOP to opt out. Consent is not a condition of any purchase. See our Privacy Policy [PRIVACY POLICY URL] and Terms [TERMS URL].

If you only send one kind of text

Keep just the one box that fits. A business that sends only reminders and updates keeps Checkbox 2. Say so in your campaign description.

Form footer (every form and page)

> Privacy Policy [PRIVACY POLICY URL] | Terms of Service [TERMS URL]

If you use a DBA, show it in the page header or footer too, for example: "[DBA NAME], a trade name of [LEGAL BUSINESS NAME]." Use the same name inside the checkbox text as in your registration.

If your texts are age limited

If you sell age-limited products (for example alcohol or vape), add a real age check on the site and say "21 or older" (or the age your law requires) in the consent and Terms. Some categories are not allowed for business texting at all. Ask your attorney and read the carrier rules before you register.

Sample confirmation message (sent right after someone joins)

Keep it under about 300 characters. It must name your business, say what they signed up for, say how often, mention rates, and show STOP and HELP.

> [BUSINESS NAME]: You are signed up for [MESSAGE TYPES] texts. Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Reply HELP for help or STOP to opt out. Terms: [TERMS URL]

Sample STOP reply

> [BUSINESS NAME]: You have been unsubscribed and will get no more texts from us. Reply START to join again, or call [BUSINESS PHONE].

Sample HELP reply

> [BUSINESS NAME]: For help, call [BUSINESS PHONE] or email [BUSINESS EMAIL]. Message and data rates may apply. Reply STOP to opt out.

Sample campaign messages (use the same brand name)

Write one that is non-marketing and one that is marketing if you chose Low Volume Mixed. Use brackets for the parts that change.

> [BUSINESS NAME]: Hi [First Name], this is a reminder of your appointment on [Date] at [Time]. Reply STOP to unsubscribe.
> [BUSINESS NAME]: Hi [First Name], this week only: [OFFER]. Book here: [LINK]. Reply STOP to unsubscribe.

Where else people might join

If people can also join by text keyword, paper form, QR code or in person, each way needs its own plain description in your campaign message flow, plus a public screenshot or link a reviewer can open without logging in.

Prompt A: interview me and fill in both templates

Paste this into Hermes. It reads your Company Brain first, then asks one question at a time.

COPY + PASTE PROMPT

You are my Texting Ready helper. Your job is to write a Privacy Policy and Terms of Service that pass A2P business texting review.

First, read my Company Brain for my business facts. Do not ask me for anything the Brain already answers. Tell me what you found in three lines.

Then interview me ONE question at a time. Wait for my answer before the next question. Collect:
1. Legal business name, exactly as on my tax papers
2. DBA or trade name, if any
3. Street address, city, state, ZIP
4. Business phone and business email (a real business domain, not Gmail or Yahoo)
5. Website address
6. State where I operate
7. What my business sells, in plain words
8. What texts I will send: appointment reminders, service updates, replies, offers, news
9. How often I expect to text (a number per month if I can)
10. How people join: web form, booking page, text keyword, paper form, in person
11. Whether I take payments online
12. Whether my products are age limited, or whether I am in healthcare, legal, finance or insurance
13. The date the policy takes effect (suggest today)

Rules:
- Keep each question short, in plain words.
- If my answer is unclear, ask one follow up. Do not guess. Mark anything still unknown as [NEEDS OWNER].
- If I am in healthcare, say: "Check with your attorney about HIPAA before you text anything about care."

When you have everything:
1. Read the two template files I give you: privacy-policy-template.md and terms-of-service-template.md.
2. Fill every [BRACKETED] item. Keep the text messaging section wording, including the line that mobile information is not shared with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. Do not add anything about buying, selling or sharing lists of people.
3. Make sure the business name, address, phone, email and website are identical in both documents.
4. Make sure the message types and message frequency in the Terms match what I told you.
5. Save both as files in my Company Brain under compliance/texting-ready/ and show me a short summary of what changed.
6. Keep the line: "This template is a starting point, not legal advice. Have an attorney review it for your state and industry."

Do not publish, send or change anything outside my files. Ask me to review first.
```

Prompt B: draft my pages in Product Champ

Paste this into Hermes after Prompt A. Nothing is published until you say yes.

You are my Texting Ready page builder. Use my Product Champ connection to my subaccount. Work in my own subaccount only.

Step 1: Check the connection. Tell me which subaccount you are connected to and which website or funnel you can reach. If you cannot reach it, stop and tell me what is missing. Do not ask me to type a password or key into this chat.

Step 2: Read my finished files: privacy-policy.md and terms-of-service.md in compliance/texting-ready/ in my Company Brain. If they are not there, stop and tell me to run Prompt A first.

Step 3: Create two pages as DRAFTS (not published):
- Privacy Policy, with a simple address ending in privacy-policy
- Terms of Service, with a simple address ending in terms
Use my brand colors and fonts. Paste the text exactly as written. Do not rewrite the legal wording.

Step 4: Add links to both pages in the footer of my website and in the footer of every form or funnel page that collects a phone number. Leave those footer changes as DRAFT too if the tool allows. If it does not, list each place the link must go and wait for me.

Step 5: Show me:
- The names of the two draft pages and where to preview them
- Each footer change you plan to make
- A short list of anything unclear

Step 6: STOP and ask: "Do you approve publishing these pages?" Publish only after I reply with a clear yes in this chat. If I ask for changes, edit the drafts and ask again.

Step 7: After I approve and you publish, open each public address and confirm the page loads without a login. Give me both final links to paste into my texting registration.

Never publish, delete, or change an existing page without my yes. Never text or email anyone.

Prompt C: audit my site and forms

Paste this into Hermes any time. It only reads and reports.

You are my Texting Ready auditor. Check my public website, my Privacy Policy, my Terms and every form that collects a phone number. This is read only. Do not change anything.

My website is: [WEBSITE URL]
My Privacy Policy link: [PRIVACY POLICY URL]
My Terms link: [TERMS URL]
My forms or funnel pages: [LIST FORM OR PAGE LINKS]

Open each page the way a stranger would, with no login. For each item below, answer PASS, FAIL or CAN'T TELL, and quote the exact words or point to the exact spot:

1. The website loads, shows my business name, what I do, and my contact details.
2. The business name, address, phone and email are the same on the site, the Privacy Policy, the Terms and my registration details.
3. If I use a DBA, it shows in the header or footer.
4. The Privacy Policy is public (no login) and is the only privacy policy on the site.
5. The Privacy Policy says mobile numbers and text consent are not shared with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes, and it does not mention buying or selling lists.
6. The Privacy Policy and Terms say message frequency, "message and data rates may apply," STOP to opt out, HELP for help.
7. The Terms name the business, say consent is not a condition of purchase, say carriers are not liable, and link to the Privacy Policy.
8. Every phone-number form has an SMS checkbox that is unchecked by default, optional, and separate from the Terms.
9. Marketing and non-marketing consent are separate boxes if both are used. The wording matches my campaign description.
10. Privacy Policy and Terms links appear next to the form and in the footer, and are not hidden by pop-ups.
11. Only one SMS opt-in form per page (no second form or widget collecting consent on the same page).
12. The sample messages and confirmation message name my business and show STOP and HELP.

End with:
- A score (how many PASS out of 12)
- A list of every FAIL and CAN'T TELL, with the exact fix in plain words
- The three fixes that matter most
Then ask me which fixes I want you to draft. Do not make any change yourself.
```

10 item pre-submit checklist

Submit only once your paid plan is active

Do not start registration before your paid plan is active.

1. Same identity everywhere. Legal business name, DBA, address, phone and email are identical on your website, Privacy Policy, Terms and registration.
2. Live public website. It loads without a login and shows who you are, what you do and how to reach you. It is not "under construction."
3. Public Privacy Policy. One policy only, linked in the footer and on every form. No login.
4. Non-sharing sentence. The policy says mobile information and text consent are not shared with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. No wording about buying or selling lists.
5. Public Terms. The Terms name your business, how to STOP, how to get HELP, message frequency, "message and data rates may apply," carriers not liable, consent not a condition of purchase, and a link to your Privacy Policy.
6. SMS checkbox done right. Unchecked by default, optional, separate from the Terms, and it names text messages.
7. Marketing and non-marketing split. Two separate boxes if you send both. The box wording matches your campaign description.
8. Message flow and samples match. The campaign description, use case, sample messages and confirmation message tell one story, name your brand, and show STOP and HELP.
9. Real business email. The contact email uses your business domain, not Gmail or Yahoo. The contact person is an authorized owner or officer.
10. Allowed content. You do not send prohibited or high-risk content (for example third party lead generation, debt relief, gambling, or age-limited products without an age gate). Healthcare businesses have checked with counsel. If your campaign is rejected: open the required fixes, read every one, fix the whole submission, then resubmit. Do not fix only the one line named.

WHAT WE COULD NOT CONFIRM

- The latest CTIA wording. We could only read the 2017 version, and CTIA's newer update page would not load.
- Rules published directly by The Campaign Registry. We relied on HighLevel and Twilio, who apply them.
- Any exact fee amounts. Check the pricing shown in your account.
- A rule that says "paid plan first." HighLevel says you need an active account. Waiting for your paid plan is our safe-practice advice.
- State laws. Ask your attorney.

Your next step

Run Prompt A now. When your pages are live, run Prompt C, then go through the checklist.

Remember

Hermes drafts. You approve. Nothing is published, sent or changed until you say yes.
